Foreword

Through this 1957 GREGO, we have endeavored to provide for you a means of easily bringing to your memory our last year at Fremont High School. We sincerely hope that this 1957 GREGO will always remain to be one of your most cherished possessions.

THE EDITORS

Dedication

For a teacher who is kind and understanding to her pupils, for a friend whose Christian principles characterize her as dedicated and consecrated, for a citizen who has won herself in the heart of everyone because of her willingness to give her every talent, we, the 1957 Annual Staff, affectionately dedicate this volume of the GREGO to Miss Neva Harper.

Girls' Basketball Team

We would like to congratulate the girls' basketball team for its outstanding achievement this year. Their enthusiasm to win, as well as their effort and good sportsmanship, won for the "clutch" Fremont Hornets the Wayne County Championship in the tournament and the conference. Their 21-2 record was one of which they are very proud. It truly illustrates what teamwork can accomplish. We know that the success of the Lady Hornets was greatly influenced by the leadership and guidance of their coach, Mr. Sam Cole.

Boys' Basketball Team

Although the boys' basketball team did not repeat as county champions, we are very proud of them. Their improved play during the last half of the season enabled them to finish with a 12-7 record. We are sure that they will be prepared to win several honors during their next season.

Boys' Football Team

This was only the second year that Fremont School had a football team. Although they had very few victories this season, we are very proud of the boys. With the guidance of their coach, Mr. Sam Cole, we believe that their improved play, which was shown to us this season, was an indication of a strong team in the future.

LUNCHROOM MANAGERS HONORED
— Certificates of Merit were presented Wednesday to four managers of lunchrooms in Wayne County Schools in recognition of outstanding participation in the National School Lunch Program during 1968-69. Efforts were made to reach 100 per cent of all the children in the schools with a nutritionally adequate lunch. Mrs. David Drew, center, county lunchroom supervisor, presents a certificate to Mrs.

Dorothy Maple, manager at Eureka School, for 97-100 per cent participation. Left to right are: Mrs. Maebelle Sutton, Mount Olive School, 89-92 per cent; Mrs. Maples, Mrs. Drew, Mrs. Anna Harrell, Grantham School, 93-96 per cent; and Mrs. Bonita Blow, Fremont School, 89-92 per cent. Participation on a countywide basis was 79 per cent.
